BOGLE
VINEYARDS

Hello Friends,

As we head into a new month, with so many of us under shelter-at-home orders, we wanted to check in and touch base with everyone out there.

Until further notice, our Tasting Room in Clarksburg remains closed to wine tasting, picnicking and events. To ensure the safety of our staff, their families, our customers and our community, we are not open for sales or curbside pick-up at this time, allowing as many of our team to be home with their families as possible.

While you remain at home with your loved ones, our family wants you to be able to get ahold of your favorite Bogle wines. We are currently offering to ship our wines, where legal, so you can enjoy a glass in the comfort of your own home.

--EXTENDED THROUGH May 1st--
