By signing, I confirm that I am at least 21 years of age and authorize Bogle to charge my credit card for four shipments of wine per year with a minimum commitment of one shipment. I understand that a signature is required upon delivery by an adult 21 years of age or older, and that Bogle recommends shipping to a business address. In compliance with current state laws, we are not able to ship to all 50 states at this time. Please check with us regarding shipping to states. As a Will Call member, I understand the wines in each shipment are guaranteed for 60 days, and if not available after that time, I may select wine of equal value instead.
